Tell Us About Yourself!

Thank you for your interest in the part-time Senior Pastor position currently available at our hometown country church. As the first step of our hiring process, we are asking all interested candidates to answer the following questions as an introduction:

- What qualifications do you bring to the position, including education and experience?
 - What are your current and/or previous church (or related) type responsibilities?
- What attracted you to our job posting?
- What do you most want to know about us?
- Your contact information:
 - How do you prefer to be contacted?

Please return your response to sgccpsc@gmail.com and we will be in touch.

Thank you again for your interest and response.

Sincerely,

Members of the Pastor Search Committee
